01. RODGER A. BRAND –

I first joined AFTRA in 1986, and was an active member until my job got contracted out to a non-union company in 1997. I was involved in helping to organize that shop, and have been an active member ever since. In recent years I have become a member of the Broadcast Steering Committee and our St. Louis local board. And most recently have added being 2nd Vice President and National Board Member representing the local. Now with the creation of our new union, SAG-AFTRA, I would like the opportunity to continue the work of National Board Member for the Missouri Valley Local.

02. MEAGAN FLYNN –

I vividly remember each day I received my first union cards in the mail. I was so proud to belong to organizations that have helped promote and protect performers for decades. As we move forward with our strong merged union I look forward to the future and what it brings for all of us. My desire is to represent and work hard for those members of the Missouri Valley Local. I hope you will consider giving me your vote. I ask you to allow me to serve you to the best of my abilities. Thank you!

04. TOM MURRAY –

Now that SAG and AFTRA have bonded, we can bring the united power, spirit and zeal of our collective might to ensure the future of dedicated performers and broad cast journalists. As the 1st VP of the St. Louis Local and as a former members of AEA's Council, I am experienced in contract negotiations, committee work and medications. I bring 23 years of labor activism to the table. The work is never finished!

The Local President and National Board members, by virtue of their election to those positions, shall also serve as Convention Delegates. The Local Officers, Local Board members and Convention Delegates, by virtue of their election to those positions, are eligible to serve as Alternate National Board members.

Local Board Member-at-Large - 2 year term

Vote for no more than three (3).

05. ANDREW ZIMMERMAN –

With three city's local boards merging into one, I want to make sure that our broadcasters & journalists from Omaha to Kansas City and St. Louis are evenly represented. This new board has the chance to strengthen what we can do for our members. I believe each city's yearly all membership meeting needs to become more of a social -- giving a chance for all news stations and freelance actors to come together as one. Also, we need to start a newsletter to keep all members informed on the latest news across the Missouri Valley Local.

06. ANDREA BUKOSKE –

I am Andrea Bukoske, running for a convention delegate position, to help make a positive difference for SAG-AFTRA actors and broadcasters, in our local. For the two years I am more than happy to serve my union in reaching our goals securing work and especially achieving better working conditions. It is a personal goal to help connect union members, bringing them together to be stronger as individuals and as a whole. My professional resume includes: working in film, theatre, television commercials, voiceovers, producing, coaching and directing. I would very much appreciate your vote! Thank you kindly.

07. JOE MARLOTTI –

I have been a SAG and AFTRA member since 1992. In that time I have served on the local board many times -- including the past two terms. I have worked on various committees including elections and organizing. I also helped restructure the local code after the merger. As a WORKING Union member, I believe we need to actively pursue more SAG-AFTRA jobs in this region. With my experience, reputation and solid working relationships, I believe I can be a valuable asset to the Missouri Valley Local.

08. WILLIAM E. SCHULENBURG –

I'm a native St. Louisan, almost 40 years a working SAG and AFTRA member as well as a longtime citizen of the media production community. As a St. Louis Local board officer since the mid-'80's, I have participated in the work of many committees including Co-Chairing the Wages and Working Conditions, Mentoring, and Nominating Committees. Our newly unified Union's mission is essential to the future success and security of every member and I appreciate the opportunity to continue to help the Missouri Valley Local of SAG-AFTRA meet its challenge of creating meaningful opportunities for the region's professional talent.
